

Au Pair Agreement Template

This template is a practical starting point for an au pair and host family agreement. Complete it together after video calls and check it against the official rules of the host country. Perfect AuPair is not a visa sponsor, law firm, employment agency, or tax adviser.

1. Parties

Host family

Full name(s)
Street address
City and postal code
Country
Phone number
Email address

Au pair

Full name
Date of birth
Nationality
Street address
City and postal code
Country
Phone number
Email address

Legal representative if the au pair is a minor
--	--

2. Stay and location

Start date
Expected end date
Host city and country
Private room description
Meals, transport, language course support, and other agreed benefits

3. Weekly schedule

Day	Approx. hours	Main childcare duties	Free time / notes
Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday
Sunday

4. Duties

Childcare tasks
Light household tasks related to the children
Tasks that are not expected
Driving, swimming, pets, homework, infant care, or other special notes

5. Allowance, time off, and expenses

Allowance / pocket money amount and currency
Payment day and method
Weekly free days, holidays, and notice for schedule changes
Costs covered by the family and costs covered by the au pair

6. Health, insurance, and emergencies

Insurance arrangements
Emergency contacts
Illness, medical appointments, and medication notes
Household safety rules and child emergency plan

7. Communication and privacy

Household rules, guests, curfew if any, and quiet hours
Privacy expectations for room, photos, social media, and family information
How feedback and conflicts will be discussed

8. Before travel checklist

	At least two or three video calls completed, using Zoom or another clear video tool.
	Visa, immigration, employment, tax, childcare, and insurance rules checked with official sources.
	Schedule, allowance, room, meals, transport, duties, and time off discussed in detail.
	Copies of important documents stored safely by each party.
	Both sides know who to contact locally if the arrangement does not work.

9. Changes and notice period

Notice period and steps if either side wants to end the arrangement
How later changes to this agreement must be confirmed

10. Signatures

By signing, both sides confirm that they have discussed this agreement, understand the expectations, and will check the official rules that apply in the host country.

Host family signature		Date
Au pair signature		Date
Legal representative signature if needed		Date

Reminder

This document is a template only. Some countries require specific contract forms, visa documents, sponsor documents, or employment terms. Always verify the latest official requirements before relying on this agreement.